WEST INDIES

The Cuban Patriots—The War not Over.

NEW YORK May 30—Gen Antonio Maceo the well known commander in chief of the Cuban patriot forces arrived to-day from Jamaica He is accompanied by two members of his staff Brigadiers Arcadia Leite Vidal and Juan Rios Rivera Gen Maceo says that during the past six years the patriots have been constantly promised and from here but up to the present time received absolutely nothing The strength of the patriot army to day is not one thousand men, well armed and drilled Opposed to them are over forty thousand Spanish troops who have given the Cubans not a moment's peace since the commencement of the campaign The general was wounded twenty one times and carries to day four bullets The general says he has made no terms whatever with the Spanish government and adds I am commissioned here by the provincial government and by the courtesy of General Campos was permitted to pass through his lines The war must continue There is now no more congress or standing government and affairs are under the direction of Manuel Colvar head of the provincial government Some officers are now in Jamaica on an important commission from Manuel Colvar The general while protesting against the report of his surrender could not well explain why it was confirmed by all the Havana journals

POSITION OF MR M'CONNELL

DAYTON Oregon May 28 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The candidates for county offices held an interesting meeting here to-day The principal speakers were McConnell, for senator on the Republican side and Townsend for judge on the Democratic although the Derby for representative on the Republican ticket made a good talk

As the position of Mr McConnell on the senatorial question has become public talk I take this opportunity to set him right in your widely circulated journal

Referring to the matter McConnell said that his opponent, Mr Burch, had said he would not dare to take the position at Dayton that he had at other points and says he You may now judge whether or not I will dare to do it And I pledge you upon the honor of a man, that I will not under any circumstances vote for J H. Mitchell for the United States senate If you elect me to the legislature Mr McConnell said that he recognized to the fullest extent the right of the people to inquire how he stood upon this and all other questions

Mr Chrisman, also on the Republican ticket, being inquired of by a voter said that he was not a Mitchell man repeating that form of expression several times, which not being satisfactory to the questioner, he evidently trying to dodge finally said that if the senatorial fight came to a square issue between Mitchell and a secessionist he would vote for Mitchell—which was pretty rough on J. F., after all, to be catered but one grade better than a traitor to his country

I may add in conclusion that McConnell makes a really able speech, showing remarkable familiarity with all our state and county affairs and is far superior to Charley Burch in all the qualifications necessary to an intelligent representative

LOOKER ON

A FREE BALLOT

OREGON CITY, May 29 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

What every true American esteems above every other political blessing is the ballot but it must be a free ballot it is a part of his freedom And we should emphatically and in a manner not to be forgotten resent any infringement upon that freedom. When one occupying one of the highest offices in the land uses his political influence and power to nominate men pledged to his support it is an insidious encroachment upon the freedom of the ballot. Mitchell knowing that a large majority of the people of Oregon do not want him sent back to the senate is trying to force them to do so by having the senatorial ballot tattered candidates throughout the state as far as possible pledged to his re election hoping that the Republicans as a party will blindly vote as he wishes them to

Republicans have never been required and blindly following the lead and back of party leaders as I think Mitchell will find himself and his course condemned by Oregon voters next Monday It is time that politicians were taught that on all state offices should seek the man and not that the man should force himself into the office My first and every succeeding vote has been cast for the nominee of the Republican party but as a free Republican for the truest interests and best welfare of Oregon & Republican I shall vote for Democratic nominees rather than vote for J H Mitchell for the senate the ugly Republicans who are likely to support him It is an insult to Republicans of this state that any man should attempt to dictate for whom they shall vote

Moreover any man that will allow himself to be pledged to vote contrary to what he knows to be the wish of the people entirely unqualifies himself and should never be allowed to legislate for our state A FREE REPUBLICAN

ANOTHER INDIAN WAR.

Two Hundred Bannock Indians on the War Path—They are in the Lava Beds between Big Camas Prairie and Snake River —Two Men Shot

[SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN]

BOISE CITY May 30 Two Citizens Johnson Kennedy and Campbell arrived here at 6 o'clock this evening having ridden thirty miles from their camp Big Camas prairie since 11 o'clock A M to day Before leaving two white men came into their camp who had been hotly pursued by Bannocks and one was mortally wounded in the head and the other severely wounded in the body and left report about two hundred Bannocks and Shoshones with Buffalo Horn at their head encamped in the lava beds between the Big Camas prairie and Snake river and led by Buffalo Horn a half Bannock stout the one they now acknowledge as their chief The Bannocks have been known for some time past to be contemplating hostilities and that Buffalo Horn) has been continually with them

About two weeks ago Buffalo Horn was here with a small escort endeavoring to purchase ammunition but failed until he procured an order from Mason Brayman governor of the territory authorizing and recommending the selling of ammunition to him on the ground that he was a good Indian and friendly The citizens are much incensed against Brayman for giving the Indian this order which was in plain violation of a standing order from the president strictly prohibiting the sale or gift of ammunition to the Indians Buffalo Horn left well supplied with ammunition procured by means of this order from Brayman and he is now at the head of a formidable band of hostile Indians He has told the settlers that they must leave the prairie or be killed and has already commenced the work of massacre About 90 mounted troops under Major Collins and Col Bernard will leave here immediately for the scene of trouble This force is entirely inadequate to the task of attacking the Indians in the lava beds, but will be able to afford protection to the settlers on the prairie

A DEMOCRATIC DELUSION

DANGER WARNING TO THE DEMOCRATS AND CONFEDERATES—THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION NOT YET DECIDED

[New York Sun (Dem Tilden Organ) May 13]

One might infer, from the tone of the current political literature of the day that the result of the presidential election in 1880 is a foregone conclusion that the Democratic candidate is sure to be chosen and that the only question remaining open is who shall be the Democratic candidate? Democrats habitually talk in this way and the voice of a Republican of note was recently heard in the United States senate threating the Democrats to be merciful on their accession to power!

We take a somewhat different view of the political outlook and do not regard the success of the Democratic candidate in the next election of President as already assured, by any means If the combined and powerful effort which is being made to identify the Democracy with the spirit of the rebellion shall prevail it will prove a mortal taint to the party A shipwreck made memorable in story furnishes an apt precedent for this fatuous policy The ship was going to pieces and all on board appropriated whatever they could lay hands on—the one a chair, another a table a third a plank—in hopes to float until they should be picked up There was one fool among the passengers He seized upon the anchor and tieing the rope attached to it around his body, leaped into the sea

This fool's chance to float was as good as that of the Democratic party with the rebellion tied around its neck!

There are a few former rebels in congress who, if they have ever heard the war is over seem to think the south was the conqueror and here are a few northern doughfaces in congress of such abject nature that they prostrate themselves to the manes of the departed institution of slavery and remembering the despotic sway it once held conceive that its very ghost may lift some one of their number more fortunate than the rest, into the White House!

Vain and fatal delusions It is said the Democrats will start in the contest in 1880 with all the old slave states solid in their favor and that they are certain of the comparatively small additional number of electoral votes requisite to a majority That makes easy reckoning It is a simple sum Any body can do it

There happens however to be another fuss as easy and just as simple If all the old slave states can combine so can all the old free states The only thing needed for this is an occasion, made plain to the comprehension of the masses Then there is this difference All the old slave states combined still require help to elect their candidate whereas the old free states combined need no help but in them elves constitute a majority and can elect their candidate without extraneous aid

The Democratic candidate in 1876 was fairly elected So we maintain, on the evidence at all events of certain old rebels in the Democratic party trailed off the election to the friends of Mr Hayes They connived at the fraud by which Hayes was counted in and they now conspire with their northern doughface Democratic allies to block the way to an investigation which would uncover and expose the great fraud Do men who conduct themselves in this way suppose that the mass of the northern Democracy are so base-born so absolutely wanting in self respect, as to continue to act, to co operate with them? What guarantee can these treacherous men give that they would no sell out the party on the heels of a second victory?

The North—the old free states—will not lose sight of the fact that the Democratic candidate who after he had been lawfully elected was sold out by southern rebels was pledged against the payment of rebel war claims It is evident that this now constitutes the greatest barrier to an investigation which would be liable to put Hayes out and Tilden in

It is all very well to talk sentimentally about burying the dead past only we want the rebellion buried at the bottom that is all

We regard the question of putting an end to the election frauds of 1876 as the supreme political question of the times We are therefore for those who are with us on that issue and against those who are against us If a pronounced Republican like Gen Butler or Senator Howe should take the lead in exposing these frauds and destroying their fruits we would support him for president in 1880 in preference to any Democratic candidate who is opposed to the investigation or lukewarm about it

The next presidential election is not yet decided

Mr. Conglo's Position.

PORTLAND May 30 1878

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

I am told that it is being reported by the advocates of the Mitchell ticket that I am the candidate of the O S N Co and pledged to their interests I am not aware that I am the candidate of the O S N Co or that they favor my election There has been no communication, direct or indirect between the company or any member of it and myself on this subject or anything relating to it and I assure the people of Multnomah that I am under no pledges or trammels of any description to any man faction or corporation If elected I shall do my duty as an honest man with careful regard for the interests of the whole people Being a candidate in opposition to the election of a packed legislature the very idea on which I appear before the people precludes any pledges or obligations other than those that may rightly be required by a regard for public duty

J B CONGLE

Mr Francis Henry Moran one of the members of the Light Brigade in the Crimea has just died at Chatham England He was the trumpeter who sounded the memorable charge at Balaklava when the order was received and was dangerously wounded in the chest For the last sixteen years he had been band master in the 4th Hussars and had seen over 21 years continuous service

The Telegraph says that the bodies of the soldiers who were killed with Lieut Haines in the fight near Cottonwood were not buried at a sufficient depth and coyotes have in some instances dug up the bones This should be looked after

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA

The May Musical Festival

SAN FRANCISCO May 30 Everything comes to us in a large attendance at the musical festival to day Gov Irwin Mayor Bryant and other dignitaries will be escorted to the pavilion from the Cosmopolitan hotel by a detachment of the National Guard The time march will be from Bush to Kearney to Geary to Powell to Market to Battery On arrival of his carriage at the pavilion a salute of thirteen guns will be fired The programme to day is largely composed of military and patriotic selections

SAN FRANCISCO May 31 The musical festival closed to day under most satisfactory conditions An immense crowd was in attendance Every seat was taken and standing room occupied It is estimated about 15,000 were in attendance The audience and performers were in the best of spirits and the programme which was composed largely of martial and patriotic airs was rendered with vim and accuracy and repeatedly aroused enthusiasm of the audience to the highest pitch Foreign and eastern singers all concur in awarding the chorus and orchestra highest praise for power and excellent training Gov Irwin, Mayor Bryant and a number of other prominent gentlemen were escorted to the pavilion by the Oakland light cavalry and San Francisco national guard A salute of 13 guns was fired on their arrival The committee escorted the distinguished guests to a box, and the military were dispersed in seats in the rear of the chorus their brilliant uniforms adding greatly to the animation of the scene Star Spangled Banner by Mrs Howell, with full orchestra chorus and artillery accompaniment closed the performance in grand style The festival has been a decided success as a musical venture and though accounts have not yet been balanced it is believed that the result will prove satisfactory from a financial standpoint

Memorial Day.

Memorial day is being observed as a general holiday Flags all over the city and on the shipping in the harbor are at half mast The stock and produce exchange are closed, and business to a great extent suspended The Grand Army of the Republic will attend at the pavilion in a body

At 9 30 A M officers and comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, met at the hall on new Montgomery street and under escort of the Independent MacMahon Guard marched to Lincoln school building where literary exercises were held A brief address by Col J P Jackson, poem by H C Tilley after which the possession took up the march for Laurel Hill Cemetery, where the ceremony of decorating the graves is now in progress accompanied by the firing of minute guns Weather very favorable A light sprinkle of rain shortly before daylight laid the dust and the day is warm with light wind

UTAH.

Train Robbers.

SALT LAKE, May 30—About 10 o'clock last night a party of four masked men boarded the west bound passenger train just after it left Terry station, entered the sleeping sleeping car proceeded to rob the passengers They took a watch and one hundred dollars from one passenger, fifty dollars and tickets from another, and a gold watch and $35 from the sleeping car conductor At that some one pulled the bell cord and the robbers becoming frightened jumped off They fired three shots into the sleeper without injury to passengers They struck one passenger with a pistol, cutting the scalp some It was all done in three minutes The robbers were out of sight in the darkness before the train stopped but the ground being wet their trail was discovered at daylight this morning and a large force of armed men started in pursuit The Union Pacific Railroad Co offered a reward of $1,000 each for the arrest of the robbers

The Baptist Steamboat Bill

In moving the indefinite postponement of the bill giving the Baptists the right to own and run a small steamer on Puget Sound without regard to the navigation laws, Senator Conkling as chairman of the committee on commerce called from Senator Hoar who had introduced the bill, an explanatory remark as follows

The petitioners for this bill are an association of the Baptist church in Washington territory Their work is accomplished by sending preachers or teachers from place to place to the thinly settled places on Puget Sound both within and without the jurisdiction of the United States. They petitioned for some special privileges for a vessel which they use to convey their teachers and preachers among the inlets and waters of Puget Sound I suppose the senate will defer to the judgment of the committee on commerce that it is not possible to frame a law for this relief which shall not violate the general policy of the government Therefore, I am not disposed to make a contest with that committee.

No Show for Tilden.

[From the Springfield (Mass) Republican]

Mr Tilden, of course gets the credit—or suffers the disgrace—of having prompted the investigation movement The Republican organs, equally of course go still further, and accuse him of plotting to turn Hayes out of the White House and put himself in There is no doubt that Mr Tilden enjoys having the frauds by which he was cheated out of the presidency kept before the public, and he may very likely be disposed to stir up the brethren if they show signs of forgetting his griefs But he is altogether too sensible a man and too wary a politician to expect to supplant Mr Hayes before the 4th of March, 1881 however hopeful he may be of succeeding him at that time It would be the worst possible electioneering argument for a presidential candidate in the United States that he had tried to introduce Mexican politics in this country, and Mr Tilden knows it as well as the next man

An Avowed "Organ"

Independent journalism is illustrated in Utica, New York The editorial department of the Conkling organ, the Republican has been reorganized and in an editorial prospectus the new hand at the bellows avows his devotion to the handsome senator as follows

The Republican is friendly to Senator Conkling It believes him the purest, noblest ablest and most patriotic as he is the most prominent of American statesmen He has been misrepresented abused and vilified at his own home This can be done no longer without exposure and rebuke The Republican stands by him true as steel and solid as gold bearing no doubtful stamp and having no uncertain ring

Hayes Deserves Well.

[From the Little Rock Gazette, (Dem)]

Mr Hayes has upon the whole deserved well of the people of the country irrespective of politics It might disturb affairs to press him just now but we do not understand that it is proposed to press him out of office at all It is only proposed to investigate—to place on record the facts and our protest and above all if the evidence of wrong shall be plain to place that evidence before the people as evidence of our patriotic submission which submission seemed rather than resistance the duty of patriotism

What they will Do

From the New Orleans Bee (Dem)

What the majority of the house propose to investigate is the method by which a presidential election was vitiated by which false returns were imposed on the country by which a defeated candidate was enabled to supplant an elected candidate There is no design to attempt any unconstitutional or revolutionary projects but there is a set purpose to present the facts in such a light that they will hereafter be regarded as matters of history and not simply matters of suspicion

A STATEMENT REFLECTING NEWS UPON BENNETT'S CONDUCT IN THE CELEBRATED ENCOUNTER

[N Y Dispatch to Chicago Tribune]

The Times prints the true story of the Bennett May duel given on the authority of George Wilkes editor of the Spirit of the Time who received it direct from Dr Phelps the surgeon on the occasion The story is entirely creditable to Bennett Dr Phelps says it was plain on the morning of the affair that Bennett was there to fight Both parties had their own pistols Bennett's were new with all the latest improvements May's were very old, and as it turned out, hard upon the trigger The one that Bennett got was so at least The party took their places and the word was given to fire The directions were to fire at the word Fire and not after the word Three Almost instantly upon the word Fire May shot One two three followed and Bennett who pulled at the trigger evidently with the best will in the world did not succeed in getting his weapon off He was baffled by the stiffness of the lock It was an exciting moment No one who looked at his eye as it bore straight across the angry wound which his opponent had inflicted upon his face a few days before could doubt what Bennett then meant to do, but the pistol exhausted the One, two, three, by its reluctance, and dropped harmlessly by his side His second interfered, and claimed that as Bennett had suffered his risk and disadvantage through no fault of his own he was entitled to a return shot at May The claim being according to rule was allowed and May took his place empty handed before Bennett's pistol The disk of the avenging weapon covered him as the word was given, but Bennett's face changed as he saw his opponent at his mercy, and before the signal words were counted out he had forgiven him and fired in the air This terminated the proceedings As the party left the ground Bennett said to the surgeon 'Well Doctor, do you think I did right' I should have been very sorry to have killed any man at my mercy' was the answer But glancing at the shining fresh scar across Bennett's nose he added But with such a pistol hand as yours I should have been terribly tempted to wing him' "At any rate,' said Mr Wilkes his conduct was generous and his opponent should have been glad to take responsibility of prosecution, if that is what governed them to save him from being defamed and branded as a coward The gift of a life was worth certainly as much as that It may be added that Bennett still wears the red mark left by the scar on his nose

American Telephone and District Telegraph Company, OF PORTLAND.
Central Office with Western Union Telegraph Company, No. 3 First St.
THIS COMPANY COMBINES THE PRIVILEGES and facilities of the American Speaking Telephone Co and the American District Telegraph System is organized and managed exclusively by Resident Telegraphers and Electricians, and is now ready for business.
In the Telephone Department,
We construct independent business lines fully equipped (with Telephones and Signal Bells) and maintain them in working order
We also have the Central Office System, (now working so successfully in S F.) for use by merchants and others, the principle of which will be explained to applicants. This system guarantees perfect secrecy to the parties using the lines, and is managed by professional telegraphers whose obligations and the training of years render them perfectly safe to be trusted in this important matter.
The District Telegraph System.
We furnish, when requested, Signal Boxes enabling the subscriber at any time DAY or NIGHT to summon a policeman, fireman messenger, physician hack, expressman nurse, friend, or to send a telegram to any part of the world By this system every subscriber keeps a private messenger always on hand and only pays him when he requires his services Special signals can be arranged to perform any reasonable service in the least possible time
Ladies Alone in the House
Will experience a feeling of perfect security with one of our Signal Boxes knowing that protection from robbery assault, annoyance and fire is always at their command day or night.
Rent of Telephone $2 50 per month

FRIDAY MORNING MAY 17 1878

ENORMOUS EXERTIONS

The tremendous and long continued efforts made by Mitchell to obtain extension of the Northern Pacific land grant is the theme on which his backers delight to dwell His enormous labors in this behalf during the two days in the Senate when the bogus bill passed, have been dwelt upon as something super human All this is extremely wonderful and hence one would be accustomed to infer the notorious fact that the senate has been ready at any time since October to pass a proper bill and that Mitchell through the advantage he holds as chairman of the railroad committee has been the only senator who has ever openly opposed it All the lobby and all the officials have been the result of his action All the energy that he has expended has been in opposition to the measure His own campaign circular which has been scattered throughout the state shows conclusively that the senate was strongly inclined to favorable action and that Mitchell was the person who was mainly preventing it It had no active opposition except what came from him and had he taken a proper course the bill would have passed without any of the fatal encumbrances with which he has loaded it A senator from Oregon should have insisted that the road be built on the south side of the Columbia river to Portland Beyond this the grant should be extended with unrestricted liberty This would be the way to furnish real aid for construction of a railroad All that can be had out of a grant on the most favorable terms will be indispensable to success The grant now is in such shape that no company ought to have it because no company can do any thing under it. And as the country desires a road, its interests require that the company shall not accept this bill And the company does not and will not When the president laid the bill before the board of directors the declaration against it was unanimous and though the president himself by reason of the mistake he made in the so called compromise with Mitchell considers himself in some sort committed to the bill yet he does not control the company and the company repudiate it Nor does the president want it He expects and desires amendment of the bill in the house

DELEGATE JACOBS

Jacobs who has gone against the interests of Washington territory on the railroad question as Mitchell has gone against the interests of Oregon, is so far repudiated by his own people that he dares not think of being a candidate for re-election Not only has he acquiesced in the scheme to cut off the grant for a branch line to Washington territory but, moved by influences hostile to the interests of the people whom he assumes to represent, he has actually taken an active part in depriving the territory of the benefits of railway aid On any less proof than the most positive demonstration it would be incredible that any person who is sent as the representative of a people should do a thing of this kind But it is undeniable that Jacobs has been laboring for the past six months to prevent renewal of the grant for the Wasington branch A representative so faithless to his own people is the very person who would send to Oregon a dispatch purposely made up to create an erroneous impression on a great public question for political effect All this is only one more part of the general plan to hold the great northwest in servitude to the Jay Gould monopoly The people of Washington territory have a rod in pickle for Jacobs as the people of Oregon have for Mitchell We have heard much from the people of Washington in regard to Jacobs during the last six months, and when he comes back he will find himself an alien among those who have honored him beyond his deserts Washington's interest in this great subject is identical with that of Oregon Both want other representatives at the national capital, and will have them

Much dissatisfaction is said to exist in various quarters with the management of Indian affairs under the new commissioner, Mr. Hoyt, and it is said that his unpopularity has caused the Indian committee to recommend the transfer of the bureau to the war department and to strike from the appropriation bill every item giving the commissioner any special though heretofore admitted discretion in expenditures He is accused of being absent in New York more than half the time, and of a great many things not amounting to malfeasance in office, but detrimental to his influence and to the efficient management of the Indians His recent order prohibiting the sale of paint and beads and shells to the Indians on the Missouri is regarded as the imposition of a sumptuary regulation, which no one acquainted with the habits of the Indians would attempt to enforce even if it were desirable to have them discard these things which minister so much to their content and happiness, and are really no more useless or objectionable than the more costly adornments of their white brothers and sisters It is argued that civilization can not be materially advanced by such means, and though a small matter in itself its enforcement may result in widespread dissatisfaction if not actual hostility The office of Indian commissioner has never been a bed of roses to its incumbents

Jacobs has rushed in officiously to furnish campaign capital for Mitchell When did Jacobs ever send a communication to the Portland board of trade before? In this instance he has telegraphed for no other purpose than to give the people of Oregon a false impression of an important matter for the purpose of affecting the election Whatever may be said about the president's alleged acceptance of the bill, the company have distinctly refused to accept it Nor is it in its present shape the bill to which the president agreed And more than all it is not such a bill as the company ought to have if it is going to build any road When the president laid the bill before the board of directors this was the unanimous opinion Oregon wants the company to have a subsidy which will enable them to build a road For us, it is not so much what the company wants as what the country wants Why restrict the grant and burden it? It should be made large as possible That would be the way to obtain a result

Hon P B Washburne late minister to France arrived by the Oregon and is now in the city He goes this morning to the Cascades and will return in the afternoon He was called upon yesterday at his hotel by many of our citizens Mr Washburne was continuously in Congress from 1855 to 1869 His career in that body was so prominent that it need no special mention here During the whole period of Gen Grant's administration Mr Washburn held the French mission which position he did honor to his country and himself much honor He it was whose influence procured for Gen Grant the appointment of brigadier general and created for Grant the opportunity that made him the great captain of the great war For eminent public services and high character Mr Washburne is held in esteem by all classes of his countrymen He will return to San Francisco on the Oregon We regret that he can not make a longer stay in Oregon

Another Italian disturbance is reported in Italy which may grow to be formidable Gen Howard has dispatches which agree substantially with our own Troops are few in number and so widely scattered that concentration of force in all this province necessary will be little and will take time The band of Italian workingmen and the war party have been hustled and thus disturbances have been for the present checked But congress is cutting down the army We shall hear probably to-day whether the cut breaks the back of the horse or only proper proportions Of course there will be sharp war with the Sioux Unless it prove that the acts of which reported were committed by individuals who for the future are willing to surrender

England can in six months, land 1 000 000 of fighting men of an excellent class on the shores of the Sea of Marmora It is merely a question of money A leading British journal discussing the same subject takes a slightly different view To talk of a million of splendid troops is of course absurd brag We have not the skilled officers for them or the carriage or anything else in readiness and we could not safely increase the Indian army to any such extent, for it could not be either paid reviewed or disbanded on its return

As an expedient to make votes against Mr John Dolan Independent candidate for the assessorship, the report is being put in circulation that if elected he will employ as assistant a certain person who is objectionable to many of our citizens We state by authority that such is not the case Mr Dolan when county assessor has been accustomed to do his own work mainly and as he is one of the best assessors the county ever had and as his character is in all ways above reproach he ought to be elected

Great fear is professed by those who are trying to force the election of Mitchell that southern claims will be paid People of Oregon are opposed to payment of those claims But it so happens that the only bill which Mitchell has yet passed was for payment of a claim of this class It was so improper a claim that Grant vetoed it and Mitchell has since introduced it again Because Oregon is against these claims is another reason for not re electing Mitchell

Yesterday we saw two citizens of Washington territory who expressed surprise that anybody here should be concerned about what Jacobs might telegraph They say that nobody in the territory has any confidence whatever in him and that most have long since ceased to think of him as a representative of the territory

The Commercial Reporter does not intend to allow Mr Mitchell to be attacked without coming to his rescue particularly since he is busily engaged in the very praiseworthy task of doing everything in his power to make a comfortable home in Oregon where the steam whistle of an eastern railroad will not disturb his quietude

RETURNS THANKS.—The committee of arrangements on decoration extend their thanks to their many kind friends for their liberal donation of flowers, and to those who kindly assisted in making wreaths and wreaths at the hall

ON account of the unfavorable weather, the City of Salem will be withdrawn on Saturday, June 1st will be resumed until June 15th

The audiences at New Market Theater last night to see Madame Angot's Daughter were large and fashionable Miss Angot's daughter is a favorite in capital style and not only afforded great pleasure to the audience but was loudly encored Miss Rose Manning assisted Mr Smith in the "Chaperon" In a very piquant manner Mr Chapman her singing and acting in the [illegible] sentiment and a hearty applause Miss Chilson sang exceedingly clever and sings well ren dered the "Maid Bangs" very satisfactorily This as Angot Pitou and not only gives us a treat but Mr Dauphin each did very well has decided not to remain longer in this city To-day the company will visit Vancouver and give a performance there this evening "Chimes of Normandy" will be rendered and will also be given on Monday evening a gift. Monday the troupe will go to Walla Walla, and perform there and proceed to Walla Walla. The conditions given by the company are very enjoyable, being chaste and refined All who love and can appreciate music should not fail to hear them

PICNICS.

The picnic which was announced to come off at Ladd's Garden on Wednesday will take place on Monday a favorite resort,

The Sunday Schools, Congregational and Baptist Sunday Schools of Oregon City will unite in an excursion to Salem to the Grounds on Thursday, June 6th The steamer City of Salem is chartered for the occasion and she will leave Oregon City at 8 o clock A M, with a stop at Pacific dock foot of Main street for the benefit of excursionists

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The party given last night at the armory of the Light Guards by the officers and members of that company was largely attended and proved very enjoyable The large hall was crowded with devotees of the "mazy art," and everything went right merrily Very excellent music was furnished and the supper was all that could be desired Dancing was kept up until a late hour when all went home well pleased with the evening s enjoyment

BEAUTIFUL AND IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT LONE FIR CEMETERY—ELOQUENT ADDRESS AND FLORAL TRIBUTES THE MEMORY OF THE DEPARTED HONORED

Yesterday—May 30th—was a day designated by General Logan as Decoration or Memorial day throughout the country was observed by the members of the Grand Army of the Republic and all very many other of the citizens of Portland The spirit and purpose of this memorial observance is perfectly beautiful and it is to be regretted the necessity for such a day should—with the passion hospitality and tenderness of the American people—be required But the fact remains that it is necessary and the day was observed with appropriate ceremonies

At 1 30 P M the procession formed on the corner of Alder and Third streets and marched under the direction of the marshal The procession was formed in the following order Police Band Platoon of Police Grand Army of the Republic Knights of Pythias Irish Battalion Citizens containing many veterans of the late civil war

After marching through a number of the principal streets of the city the procession headed by the fire of Stark street crossing to the eastern side the march was resumed to the cemetery An immense throng of ladies and gentlemen joined the ranks and as lowries along the line of march to witness the procession as it passed At the foot of Stark street each group of humanity became absorbed in the other and did not cease until the procession had reached the home of the dead

Fifteen minutes march from the ferry landing brought the procession to the cemetery Reaching the main gateway the procession filed right and entered the enclosure and proceeded to the spot designated for holding the ceremonies Mr H H Northup the president of the day called the assemblage to order and the ceremonies commenced at once

The Reverend Dr Bull rendered the Star Spangled Banner after which Rev J A Cruzan chaplain invoked divine blessing

Straw Bright Flowers a song was rendered by the Alpha Glee Club in a very creditable manner

Mr H H North p the president of the day advanced and made the following brief address

COMRADES AND FRIENDS—The changing year has again brought to us the anniversary of our decoration day We are assembled to celebrate the simple ceremonial of strewing the graves of our fallen comrades with flowers in commemoration of their heroic deeds and in honor of the righteous cause in which they engaged It is fitting that we the living should keep green the grave of our dead The flowers that we scatter will soon wither and decay Their sweet fragrance will soon be gone but the memories of these days will cling to us forever Thus shall we be exalted and purified and by the best lives that we live shall we give added honors to the dead

Following the above address the Portland City band discoursed Auld Lang Syne

F O McCown Esq was then introduced and delivered the following

ADDRESS

Comrades A remnant of that mighty host numbering nearly two millions of men who on the 19 of April and 4 marched armed treason for the very existence of our government turning the darkest hours of the rebellion have gathered around these graves to commemorate the bravery and noble self sacrifice of our fallen heroes At such an hour as this the unseen spirits of the nation s dead fresh from the bloody sacrifice to mad ambition and treason come forth from their graves clad in all the gay habiliaments of the battle field and with one impulse point silently mournfully to the shadowy ranks of the past — to some more dear to us before us as a grand pageant

Again fort-hunts cannon awakes and startles the patriots from peace and security with the fearful cry of Fourteen to be taken up and echoed and re-echoed from every hillside and mountain top till the very air rings with the cry of To arms The nation is in peril! Treason lurks along our southern border and stalks with lordly tread through the halls of congress and infuses its poisonous infection even through our little army Our navy is in foreign seas Our president dallies with the hydra headed monster! Then thoughtful men noble mothers loving wives and tender sisters paused with bated breath and blanched cheek and pondered the fearful struggle yet to come They thought of your brave young men and of your brave comrades fallen in all the tender loving sacred relations of home and kindred but the delay was only for one brief moment as when the lion crouches to concentrate all his power for the final spring upon his prey They remembered it as a glorious heritage and bade you go forth and battle for God and the right

Not till every hard foiler on American soil had drank of the bitter cup of war—not till every home north south east and west had felt the loss of loved ones—not till every household was a shrine of mourning—not till the first-born of the land was slain—not till 400 000 of our comrades slept

Under the sod and the dew
Waiting the judgment day —

Not till we had consented that the bondmen might go free and recognized the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man did the God of nations stay the tide of war and bless us with peace

It was a fearful sacrifice for national sin

And yet though 400 000 brave comrades were slain by war and another 400 000 less happy but not less glorious in their offering maimed halt mangled torn, and shattered in health have been dropping by every wayside since 1865 Though every man whose name was enrolled in the army or navy were sleeping beside our dead comrades it were not too much to pay for it and the

some things are worthless,
And some are so good
That nations who buy them
Pay only in blood

But comrades thank God the harvest of death is over the Moloch of treason is sated with the blood of patriots Though not yet is the heavy burden lifted and we shall leave part to be borne by our posterity, to teach them it may be that the priceless jewel of American liberty cost something May it be yours to see that no stain on national honor be also left for them to atone for

Vengeance is mine and I will repay saith the Lord The Nation s blighted faith hallowed by these graves of dead patriots by the tears of the nation for its fallen heroes by every consideration of peace and security must be kept No specious logic born of the mad passions of the hour can pay a Nations debt With what measure ye mete it shall be measured to you again

Comrades while we bring these flowers to strew on the graves of our dead comrades and who fell victims of a disease caused by the fearful exactions of a soldier s duty during years of service beneath the folds of that starry flag, and while this vast concourse of our dear friends, with hearts aglow with human sympathy and tender memories for father mother sister, husband wife and child who so quietly and sweetly sleep in this City of the Dead, cover these last resting place with garlands Let us remember the brave and magnanimous men who met us face to face and manfully struggled for victory As we proved to them how we could battle for our right let us prove to them that we can love for country We demonstrated how we could fight let us demonstrate how we can forbear

The brilliant deeds of the Confederate arms may well challenge our warmest admiration Comrades it shall be for us to accord to them the due meed of praise for bravery and devotion to their cause but do not ask us to worship at their cause or worship at the shrine of their devotion The Confederate staked his cause and his altars on the arbitrament of war and lost the Stars and Bars went down forever before the Stars and Stripes Let his ambitions and his hopes be wrapped in his flag and buried with the brave men who fell defending them then, as we clashed arms in war we can strike hands in peace and as actors in the great drama of blood can set an example of forbearance and brotherly love

The blue and the gray must declare and stand together for peace—for fraternity, for prosperity, for National Union, for national supremacy national grandeur and national glory

Confederate soldiers if there be any within the sound of my voice only last month in your own sunny South you strewed the beautiful emblems of peace on the graves of our fallen heroes We here on this far off bleak coast send back to you the warmest greeting of brotherly love and conciliation as we in like manner remember your comrades fallen

That old flag born amid the storms of the revolution bright with the emblems of heaven is not ours alone but yours May it ever float to the breeze as a beacon light to the oppressed nations of the earth May this day be always bright in our memory as we men, women and children north south east and west remember reverently the words of our own Lincoln With charity for all with malice toward none with firmness in the right as God gives us the right let us strive on to finish the work we are in to do all that may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations

Soldiers farewell was rendered in a very effective style by the Northwestern Band at the conclusion of the address

Mrs D F Smith the accomplished lady artist was next introduced and recited in a sad fully the poem The Blue and the Gray

Following the recitation the Alpha Glee Club sang Dream in Day

Mr R C White was then introduced and recited the original poem entitled Flowers for the Dead We regret that want of space prevents the insertion of the poem It is but justice to say that it is a perfect poem and was recited with excellent effect by many effects

Memorial Hymn "Nearer My God" was feelingly rendered by the Portland City Band

The following memorial sentiment Our Country was delivered by Comrade H H Northup

Our country! 'tis a glorious land
With broad arms spread from shore to shore
The wood Pacific chafes her strand

Comrades Thirty years and ten have come and gone since the black cloud of war settled over our land When it cleared away it carried with it the fetters of a confederation and left our government established on the firm principle of a federal union Thus were made triumphant the words of America's great orator Liberty and Union now and for ever one and inseparable

Comrades A free united people of one country is ours Our fathers marches hedged us in It is our duty to keep it thus And we will We are the sons extend the hand to those who were the day and ask them to join us in this work We With bitter memories of the past let us gather within the charmed circle free within the sphere of action that it be said of our age

Then one were fraternal
The Blue and the Gray
They blessed the soil that bound them
As brothers of the heart
With equal love
The nation s sacred calm to share
And bless the soil that bound them
As brothers of the heart

Hon H W Seward followed the following memorial sentiment Army and Navy

Three cheers and a tiger for the United States army and navy

The procession then marched to the cemetery, and in all civilized communities all the country over the graves of the fallen were strewn with flowers by the hands of loving mourners, they were sacredly watched with the fidelity of little dogs, and now gently mound the wheat ears of corn ripe for the sickle The year s harvest is gathered to fill the granaries of the nation and the blessing of God and the gratitude of a million freemen will descend upon the heads of the living who were the blue or who were the gray but as brothers working in a common cause to build the government of our country that it may rest on a sure four latticed and exalt it to the world the grandest of a united free people.

Columbia Herald 31st Spring has come and once more we are permitted through the divine mercy of God to pay tribute to the dead No feeling of animosity or revenge finds lodgement in our hearts while we honor the cause for which we fought while we shall ever hold in living remembrance the manly forms of our boys In blue yet to lay we mingle no distinction between the blue and grey While we look down upon the graves of a brave man and a true We can look upon the proper of the [illegible] in clothing grey and see not No more the color of the uniform while living to all are heroes when dead The blue and the grey are united the grey and the blue are blended They as their hearts blood flowed from the same cause so did the blue and the grey leave dearest their upon the battle field The blue was changed to crimson same to object the grey We saw neither the blue nor grey, but reason Were we behind the lines of graves of brave men who met a foeman worthy of the name and fought with equal courage both and died true to their manhood true to their respective causes leaving a record behind them to be filled with deeds of valor and The color of the coat whether blue or grey we care not for the color of his laurels Time has a God like gift to cleanse that dyed in the Discord s hushed in death for down beneath the sod and a happiness at last brotherly love We lay gently some of us may say of battle We gather flowers alike for the Blue flowers for the Grey

Comrade R W Byron made the following memorial response to the sentiment The Nation s Honored Dead

The scourge of civil war has filled our country over with soldiers graves and carried heartfelt sorrow to many homes but while the mourners weep they plant the flag not over their lamented dead and patriotism finds a utterance in beautiful flowers while they strew the nations honored dead and we have all the proper and due payments and pursuits of life and assembled here to pay a due tribute of respect to the memory of those who died to secure the priceless heritage and bless ings of liberty to all men Profane not the hour with unworthy thoughts but let all party strife and rebuked all vain ambition while we manifest our appreciation of the services and sacrifices of those of our comrades who perished and laid down their lives in defense of our common heritage Thousands of our comrades rest in unknown graves far away from the loved ones at home They slumber in the land of strangers where the tears of sorrow cannot moisten the green sod that mantles their silent bed Yet kindred hands will strew flowers or loved eye to shed a tear of sorrow, there is One who reigns among the astral stars who keeps watch over their last resting place and Nature herself will deck their graves and the winds of Heaven will chant a requiem to their memory and kiss the spot where they sleep

In honor of the Nation s dead who sleep in unknown graves we stand pledged to keep bright the memory of our fallen comrades so may their noble sacrifices and deeds ever remain green in the memory of all men while liberty lasts

Comrade Frank I Story dropped white flowers about the graves and made the following remarks

We here renew our devotion to our country consecrated by the blood of so many heroes

On Fame s eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread

And we bring floral offerings in token of fraternal appreciation of their noble sacrifices In honor of our dead comrades I deposit these flowers as bright as their memory and as pure as their fame

America with band and full chorus was played and sung in unison after which the benediction was pronounced

This concluded the ceremonies At the bugle call the procession reformed and marched back to the city and disbanded

Notwithstanding the day was cloudy and showery the ceremonies proved very interesting and impressive The song what s the grumble char acter of the weather don t even persons from visiting the cemetery during the day It is estimated that the attendance was in the vicinity of 1000 The affair was well conducted and we are gratified to be able to announce that no accident worthy of mention occurred during the day

LETTER FROM SECRETARY McCRARY.

Hon H W Corbett president of the Board of Trade has received the following letter from Hon Geo W McCrary secretary of war

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON May 29th 1878

SIR Acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 13th ult requesting the removal of certain obstructions in the Columbia river I have the honor to inform you that the Chief of Engineers to whom the subject was referred informs me that he officer in charge of the improvement of the Lower Willamette and Columbia river called his attention to the obstructions referred to but that being no appropriation applicable to the removal of the obstructions, no action was taken in the matter

The obstruction being caused by fishermen it is a matter that calls for interference by the state courts but should the state fail to cause a removal of the nuisance or obstruction to its navigable waters then the United States may interfere to prevent and inhibit the same before a competent court Very respectfully your obedient servant

Silver coin 2@2½ per cent. discount

The financial situation offers no new features to call forth comment Silver coin is reported to be accumulating rather in excess of the proportion to gold and legal tenders and another advance in the discount is expected though as yet bankers and merchants quote at the same rate as one week ago

It seems that the proposed bi metallic congress which is to be convened under the provisions of the recently enacted silver bill is not regarded with a great deal of favor nor even with much interest by the great commercial nations of Europe and it is doubtful if either England France or Germany consider it of sufficient importance to participate in it and if the government of the United States secures a bi metallic standard it is probable it will accomplish it without the aid of any other important mercantile power. The London Economist has little faith in the good results to be secured by the conference. It argues that its proceedings will amount to no more than a regulated conversation which can be useful only so far as it may tend to dispel illusions and fallacies that have been refuted over and over again There seems to be an impression abroad that the whole scheme has been gotten up by some enterprising Yankees for the purpose of affording a better market for the product of our western mines How much are they out of the way

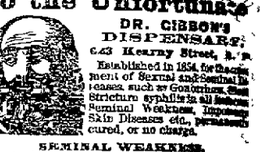
To the Unfortunate



DR. GIBBON'S DISPENSARY,
653 Kearny Street, S. F.
Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, Nervous Debility, Skin Diseases etc., permanently cured, or no charge.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, is a terrible disease, and one that is sadly neglected by the youth of both sexes to an unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, if not combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Universal lassitude, pain in the back, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, nervous tremblings, hysterics, epilepsy or fits, nervous prostration, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation of the bowels, loss of memory, confusion of ideas, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blotches on the face, blushing, bashfulness, nervousness, sleeplessness, dreadful dreams, frightful forebodings, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, lack of confidence, dullness, lassitude, indecision, want of energy, etc. Thousands of young men who have become victims of this terrible disease, through ignorance of the consequences resulting therefrom, are now filling premature graves, to the great grief of their friends and relatives. Time flies, and every day you neglect yourself renders you more unfit for business or pleasure. Before contracting marriage, you should reflect that a healthy partner is essentially necessary to happiness. Consult your own feelings in the matter, and do not trust your happiness for life with one who is suffering from a disease that renders her miserable herself, and makes her unfit to discharge the duties of a wife. Many persons troubled with this disease ascribe their symptoms to other causes, and content themselves with local treatment, or quack nostrums, when the disease is in the blood, and requires a thorough constitutional remedy. Dr. Gibbon has had thirty years' experience in this class of diseases, and has the most reliable remedies in the world. Patients can be treated at a distance by addressing him, and enclosing a full statement of their case. Medicines sent by express, C O D, to any part of the country. Consultation free. Office hours from 9 A M to 8 P M. Sundays from 10 A M to 1 P M.

A PRIVATE MEDICAL ADVISER—On all disorders of a Private Nature, arising from Self-Abuse, Excesses or Secret Diseases, with 26 plates, 25 cts per copy, or 50 cts per set.

Either book sent postpaid on receipt of price—or all three sent to any address postpaid, illustrated, for 50 cts. Address DR. BOTTS, No. 153 South 3d St. Louis, Mo.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

Decoration Day at Gettysburg

GETTYSBURG May 31 The grand procession moved to the cemetery in a blinding rain which lasted till 2 o clock As the rain lulled the procession formed and President Hayes Governor Curtin and Edward McPherson were invited the president to speak as follows

Fellow Citizens The battle of Gettysburg probably always will be regarded as the decisive battle of the great civil war in the United States. Here the best blood of the north was poured out and perished here that the nation might live Here the dead were honored dead were [illegible] and here therefore be [illegible] special and grateful remembrance The great martyr of the civil war was Abraham Lincoln He by his immortal words spoken here has indissolubly linked his name and memory with the battle of Gettysburg and with the brave men who here fought and died Lincoln gave eloquent utterance to the thought that inspired the armies that here for the defense of liberty responded to the call and for a stable, constitutional government. They believed that our institutions were worth the cost of preserving They believed that our institutions were worth the cost of property or of life They believed that our institutions were worth the cost of maintaining in this place shall defy honorable assembling in this place shall defy honorable assembling will we now wish remembered with gratitude when we now wish remembered with gratitude when we will be because beholding these scenes as we will be because beholding these scenes as we [illegible] the example of the heroes who [illegible] the example of the heroes who [illegible] illustrious as we shall be able to establish institutions and be better prepared for the duties institutions and be better prepared for the duties which under Providence have devolved upon us which under Providence have devolved upon us The words of Abraham Lincoln uttered here The words of Abraham Lincoln uttered here let us give heed to the words of Abraham Lincoln let us give heed to the words of Abraham Lincoln Let us here highly resolve that these dead shall have died in vain that the nation under God have died in vain that the nation under God shall have a new birth of freed
